OFFICE OF LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL

Monday - 17 December 1973

STATINTL 1. (Unclassified - GLC) [REDACTED] a former Agency employee who is a good friend of Vince Rakestraw (Legislative Assistant to Senator Saxbe), called to say that in a recent conversation Rakestraw expressed an interest in the three of us getting together after the first of the year. According to [REDACTED] Rakestraw is in line for a high administrative position in the Justice Department. [REDACTED] will get in touch with me in early January.

2. (Unclassified - GLC) In response to my call, Kathy Nelson, of Senator Symington's staff, called and suggested 10:30 a.m. Wednesday for the Director's meeting with the Senator. She said the Senator asked that our attention be directed to the January Harper's Magazine article by Taylor Branch entitled "The Censors of Bumbledom." He said he would like to speak to Mr. Colby about it when he sees him. I told Miss Nelson that the Director's calendar had become impossible since last week and suggested as an alternate date 3:00 p.m. Friday. We said we would check this and be back in touch with me.

3. (Unclassified - JGO) Talked to Bill Hogan, House Armed Services Committee staff, who told me that the Agency cost-of-living amendment bill, S. 2714, passed the House today on the Consent Calendar. He does not know under the present House procedures when it will go to the President for signature. Personnel has been advised.

4. (Unclassified - JMM) Called Mildred Ward, in the office of Senator John Stennis, to ask for an appointment for the Director to see the Senator. She said she would call back in the next day or two.
